A book of jokes and humorous circumstances featuring the author as the main character. It is set in a real town but none of the businesses or people, other than the author, are real. All the towns and cities, along with the Universities, however are real. The circumstances described are totally made up and are set to make the reader chuckle or even burst out laughing! However, some of the content is adult oriented and may not be suitable for children under the age of 13. No profanity has been used but there is a lot of innuendo.
