This Book is also available in the 'Out of the Shadows Complete Box Set' which also includes 6 extra bonus books. Ida Walker is an older woman who has seen her three daughters married to wonderful Godly men, and their lives are slowly taking shape. She has been through a hard life and is settled to be a grandmother and nothing else, but the Lord has other plans for her life. Roger Dinger is a senator, a Godly man with a five year old daughter who no one is able to handle. He is a widower and yearns for love, but he knows that no woman will want a man with a troublesome child. Can he find love again, and if so, will love transcend the bonds of ethnicity and stir up his heart again? In the most unlikely way, the little girl bridges the gap bringing these two special souls together. Out of the Shadows and Into The Light is a series of stories that follow the emotional journeys of four courageous ladies who refuse to be broken, and find God's best plan for their future.
