Short book for kids 4-7. Great for beginning readers as well as those a little older. Jethro is a boy who's about to find out what it's like to have his very own ghost friend! No one else can see Calvin the ghost, which can get a little confusing when people think Jethro is talking to himself or eating too many cookies! When Jethro's friend Sally is upset because her ball is stuck in a very tall tree, it's Calvin the ghost to the rescue! What would YOU do if you walked into your bedroom and saw a ghost sitting on your bed?
