This book is for the creative who doesn't believe anyone will ever read your story. Indie publishing is a mystery to you, and you don't know where to begin, regard of the story bursting in your veins. There are thousands of stories that rival those on the bestseller list that have yet to be voiced — stories that are waiting for you to give them life.

You don't have to wait for the gatekeepers anymore. Disclaimer: you will not find any promises of bestseller secrets or how to get rich quick here. Story means more to me than that, and if I wager correctly, I imagine it means more to you too. It might even be why you haven't written your own story yet. Let me say this: we need what you have to say. We need the stories of people walking through their world, whatever that world looks like. The time for your book is now. There is no excuse. You know this — you feel it in your bones.

That's what this book is for — that's why I wrote it. Ready to begin?
