Brian's sister and mother vanished without a trace over a year ago. It was not uncommon. People were disappearing everywhere. To Brian, life had become a frightening madness. He knows that in another two years the planet will be unable to support life. Now suddenly, his father is gone. Fighting the panic that haunts everyone, Brian resolves to find his family before it is too late. Joined by his beautiful friend Heather, he begins a dangerous search through abandoned shipyards, a burned out park, and finally a deserted jewelry arcade. And they are not alone. Clearly, the government will stop at nothing to find these people who seem to have vanished into the earth's rancid air. And though Brian doesn't understand why, he knows that it is a deadly contest he cannot afford to lose.
