After years of unrewarding work as a lawyer in London, and sensing the end of her relationship with a man far too attached to his mother, Janie Malham desperately needs a change of scene. When offered a temporary position with a charity in the most rural part of Scotland she imagines it will be exactly the break she requires. Forming friendships in the tiny village, Janie initially enjoys the challenges of the post but delving into the charity's records she soon discovers why they are so unpopular and finds herself on a dangerous mission to bring them to justice. Assisted by an eccentric artist and the local police sergeant she then begins to fight for the local's rights. A handsome stranger and his dog, however, bring further mysteries for Janie to solve, none more so than who he really is and why only she seems to know of him.
