Frank Ellis is smooth, has the gift of gab and is knowledgeable about anything that relates to finances. As a financial consultant, he considers himself to be one of the best. And when it comes to women, he has no qualms about his prowess. He has no complaints; nor has he received any. But it just isn't enough anymore. Enter Delilah Carpenter. A sexy, down-to-earth young woman from Savannah, Georgia, she is in the audience of one of Frank's entertaining financial planning seminars. They meet and things get interesting--and not in a good way. After he makes a -than-favorable impression, Frank awakens to discover that Delilah has already checked out of the hotel in which they are both staying. And Frank wonders if he will ever get a chance to redeem himself.
