The stars shine brightest when the night is darkest. Haunted by the deaths of his friends, the former human being, Blaze, sets out to make sure that those close to him are never harmed again. To do this, he must gain new strength from his creator, Valde Abbas, who has plans for him beyond what he could ever imagine. Secrets within Icefire's ranks begin to surface, secrets that will change Blaze's life forever. The stakes rise higher as the forest begins to fall under Goliath's control. If they are to survive, Icefire has only one hope. The Sword must be found.
