Mrithyunjaya means "death-conquering." This story related to 'Rig Veda' and 'Atharva Veda'. The story developed related to this 'Vedas' and explaining a fight in between good and Evil to restore peace. The story of Vasudevan Nambuthiri belongs to a Brahmin family who lives for the wellness and good for the villagers. The entire Village loves him and his family due to their activities and creativeness for the people of his Village.

Villagers have loved him as like their living God and obey his words as it is coming from God. One land lord lived in the same Village jealous on him because of the respects that he receives from the people. His cruelty developed an agenda to destroy Vasudevan Nambuthiri with the help of a black magician. Land lord wins in his game and destroyed the family of Vasudevan Nambuthiri.

Years after Devanarayanan Son of Vasudevan Nabuthri coming back to Village as a destroyer to take revenge against the black magician and wrecked the evil spirits.
