Lost and alone in the Montana wilderness, Tabitha never expected to survive, much less find a man like Grant... Tabitha came to the Bitterroot Mountains to prove herself, but a series of increasingly unfortunate events leave her stranded in the dark, she's ready to give up hope. Enter Grant, a rugged hermit who lives miles from civilization. Tall, broad-shouldered, and brooding, Grant's demeanor is as coarse as his beard, but desperate to find safety, Tabitha refuses to let him send her away. Soon she'll learn the terrible secret that drove Grant from society and made him a danger to everyone around him. Torn between what he wants and what he is, Grant must struggle to contain his inner beast as lust and hunger battle for control of his soul. And whichever side wins, Tabitha can't escape.
