Chloe is a pool hustler who would rather earn an easy night's money on her feet, than on her back. Until she meets the panty-droppingly gorgeous Jackson, a hotel tycoon who represents one heck of a score. Jackson doesn't take kindly to being hustled, so he decides to take Chloe for his own ride by making an indecent proposal she can't refuse: be his companion for five days on a remote, tropical island and he will give her the biggest payout of her life. But the stakes on this bet are even higher when they both realize their hearts are on the line. Join Chloe and Jackson for some scorching hot love on a tropical island. Can you stand the heat?
