Death, secrets, lies, and ministry? The members of Eternal Life Baptist Church have it all. Reverend Bill Alexander is a single associate minister at Eternal Life Baptist Church who struggles with the conflict between his calling and his desire to find the perfect wife. The woman he has his eye on, Ella Mills, is playing hard to get while her twin sister, Edna makes herself readily available. Follow their ordeals in the church and in their lives that are both complicated by the meddlesome church mother, the death of their beloved pastor, and a thirty year old secret that is revealed during a time of tragedy.
